

HUGH MASEKELA

The South African Music Legend

Hugh Masekela has covered the globe and played with just about every top star you can think of. He was awarded with a Grammy twice: for "Grazing in the Grass" in the late 60ies and together with Mboneni Ngema for "Sarafina" 1987. Masekela wrote a number of international hits and sold several millionen cds. The single 'Grazing in the Grass' topped the Rolling Stones' Jumping Jack Flash in the US charts. His hit "Bring Him Back Home" became the anthem for Nelson Mandela's world tour following his release from prison. His recent albums have all gone platinum. "The man with the horn" is a living legend, a genius musician and great performer who is even getting better in his "old days".
